

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This is clearly politically motivated and if it is allowed, they should be forced to air, on the same time schedule a program of the DNC choosing. I would vote for Fahrenheit 911.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
